

Week Two

In PE, we played a traffic light game and played some parachute games, it was fun!

In maths we have been matching and sorting. We matched socks, buttons and sticks.

We learnt the sound 'a' for apple today, so we did some apple printing.

We have been learning about families and sharing who is in our family. All our photos are on the wall and we have been matching the family to the mini me.

