Headteacher: Mrs R. Griffiths

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am delighted to be able to share with you that Rucstall Primary School is...

This is a simply superb recognition of what we offer the children at Rucstall. Obtaining the 'Outstanding' grading has never been what our vision, values, aims and outcomes had been about. At Rucstall we always, and will continue to, focus on ensuring the very best for the children in our care. We focus tirelessly on ensuring the best emotional and academic outcomes for every child. This doesn't mean we expect everyone to always agree with what we are doing, but we will always ensure our best endeavours for every child in our care. The children are our primary focus. Our core business is supporting every child to develop a lifelong of love of learning, within our caring, fun-loving, learning community.

We trust that you will be as delighted as ourselves with this outcome and acknowledgment of the education your child receives from our staff team. We also hope that parents will reflect on this judgement and that it gives you further confidence in the decisions we make as a school, with your children's best interests at heart. To achieve this, high expectations are essential and true parent partnership with aspirations for every child. Children's education is a joint endeavour between home and school. To ensure the success of every child, we must work in unison: both committing to the challenges of child development between the ages of 4 and 11 and the effort, time and sacrifice raising successful young people takes. Today I reaffirm our commitment to your children and families to ensure that your child accesses the educational provision they deserve, alongside the personal development and opportunities which support their personal growth. I ask you to revisit your Home-School agreement, our vision, values and aims, and to do the same.

Today I hope we stand together proud. Proud of the Rucstall community and family that we have become. Proud of our children. And proud of ourselves, for supporting them to be their very best.

A heart felt thank you goes to our current staff team and also to those who have worked with me over the past 6 years. It takes time to achieve excellence and we are thankful to everyone who has contributed to ensure the success of our provision.

I look forward to continuing to working with you in the years to come to provide ongoing 'Outstanding' care and education for the children of Rucstall Primary School.

Best wishes,

Mrs R Griffiths
